MILLER CAPTI US THE MENAGERIE.

COLUMBIA, S. C., September 18.—After a sharp contest Miller and Webster captured the convention and made George W. Muray, a negro of Sumter, permanent chairman. Brayton was entirely ignored.

Since the nomination of Murray Brayton's friends have determined to put him in the field as a candidate for Congress against Miller in the only Republican district in the State—the Seventh. This will insure the election of a Democrat and the return of Congressman Elliott.

There is a strong disposition to nominate a State ticket and the question is now being discussed. The platform has not yet been reported by the committee.

Mr. Plumb offered a resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to inform the Senate whether the rule or policy of his department, which requires the payment of checks for silver bullion over the counter of a sub-Treasury instead of through a proper clearing-house, does not result in the paying out of notes of larger denominations instead of those suited for circulation and use in ordinary business transactions, and whether such method of paying does not result in the payment of gold instead of Treasury notes. Agreed to after some discussion.

THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL SIGNED.

Washington, D. C., September 18.—The cancus of the Republican members of the House this afternoon lasted an hour and a quarter. The sole topic of discussion was the status of business in the House and the best means of obtaining a quorum to do business. It was found upon a roll-call that there are now in Washington 145 Republican members, which is 21 less than a quorum. Consequently there are now 28 Republican absentees. The caucus resolved to make every effort to secure the attendance of these members, and telegrams will be sent out to-night representing the pressing need for their presence. It was stated that if these absentees return to Washington the remaining business of the session can be closed up in a few days, while the failure to secure the attendance of a Republican querum will tend to protract the session indefinitely.

To-day being regular County-Court day there was a large crowd in attendance from Carroll and adjoining counties.

Congressman P. G. Lester appeared and made a ringing speech to his constituents. A noticeable fact was the number of Primitive Baptists congregated around the stand. It will be remembered that Mr. Lester is a Primitive Baptist preacher and the influence of this fact will be felt in the coming election.

The convention is discussing this report and a perman, nent organization has not yet been effected. Miller now has control of the convention and no doubt his man, ex-Congressman Stuails, will be made permanent chairman. The convention is very noisy and works slowly. The Manassas Convention Decides Against a Candidate—Opposition Bolt.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

ALEXANDRIA, VA.. September 18.—The Republican Congressional Convention for the Eighth district held at Manassas to-day decided that it was inexpedient for them to make a nomination. This motion was carried by a large majority, but not without opposition, which was led by Judge Freeman, of Fairfax county. The kicking Republicans in attendance on the convention held a meeting and it is said that they have determined to hold a convention of their own and put an independent Republican ticket in the field. Much indignation has been expressed here at the action of the convention.

cause untold pentreal demoralization. So far as fraud, intimidation, and bribery are resorted to at elections both in northern and southern States these evils do not call for and cannot be cured by a measure which deprives the States of the right to determine the election of their own representatives, which drags the Federal indiciary into the mire of party politics, which offers vost opportunities for influencing elections by the corruptuse of the Federal patronage, and furnishes an excuse for the use of bayonets at the ballot-boxes.

Past history and present experience alike teach us that though the nation may be ruled by arbitrary and centralized power, though all the form of popular government is maintained, the enactment of this bill would tend to remove the control of their government from the people and to invest it in the leaders of the party in power. We regret that the name of a Massachusetts member of Congress should be associated with such a measure, and we believe the liberal sentiment of this State, without distinction of party, repudiates his course.

Reason though not defence for these methods, which lead toward the suppression of free representative government, is found in the control of the Republican party policy by a man whom one of his own political associates has on the floor of the House fitty characterized as a "branded criminal."

In matters of legislation we renew our demands for a free ballet, reasonable and progressive labor laws, and legislation for the improvement of election methods. We denounce the McKinley bill which the Republican party is about to place upon the statute-books as the most insquitous piece of legislation ever attempted in this country. Its provisions are the fulfilment of the Democratic prophecy in the last presidential campaign that a Republican revision of the tariff would increase its burdens. Its sweeping advance in trates of duty prove that the Republican managers secured from the protected manufacturers the corruption fund required to carry the presidential election by the promise that its duties should be raised, while they were assuring the voters that Republican revision meant reduction.

ENNEW DEMOCRATIC ASSAULTS.

The Republican party has not settled the tariff question by meeting its obligations to the manufacturers. The Democratic party will renew its assault upon the Republican system of spolation more vigorously when its present evils are agrained by the passage of the pending bulk, and it asks for the control of the next House in order that it may undo the work of the Persent congress.

We regret that the name of a Massachusetts member of Congress should be associated with such a measure, and we believe the liberal sentiment of this state, without distinction of party, repudiates his course.

We recall with pride the financial policy of the Federal Government when the Treasury was under the control of the Democratic party: when confidence was felt in the prudence and sagacity of its methods, and we ask business men of this State to contrast that administration with the short-sighted and dangerous policy that has prevailed lately—a policy what has prevailed lately—a policy which has several times threatened and may any time lead to a financial partic.

To overthrow the liberties of the representatives of the people was the work of his party, and to complete the outrage the Federal bayonet alone is required.

Confronted with such an alternative, he thought there should be no hesitation as to choice. He advised the tenants on every estate to meet and consult as to what proportion, if any, of their rent they could honestly pay. When that question had been determined they should all abide by the decision. If the farmers, he said, should give to the landlords the money which was needed to buy bread for their children the Irish leaders would not dare to appeal to the world to come to the rescue of such a nation of slaves.

But if the tenants would absolutely refuse to pay a penny of rent until every family that tilled the soil was placed beyond the reach of starvation, then if the Government evicted the starving people from their poor homes it would be swept out of existence by a torrent of English indignation, and the whole civilized world send money and assistance for the benefit of the tenants.

THE VERT THING THEY WANTED. Michael Davitt was interviewed this afternoon in regard to the arrests. He took a very hopeful view of the sanation and thought the effect would be entirely favorable to the Irish cause. "If Dillon and O'Brien," he said, "had deliberately set out to devise plans for increasing the popularity of the plan of campaign and heightening the prestige of the Land League, they could not have accomplished their purpose in any way more successfully than by inducing Balfour to take precisely the step he has taken of his own volition. It is just what they wanted. There had begun to be the feeling in Iraliand that the plan of campaign had been carried far enough. These arrests will be sure to rouse public sentiment in its favor again. Balfour has not made a greater mistake since he has been in chief authority over Ireland."

THE COMING LIQUIDATION.

There is a great deal heard from the shorts mow about the liquidation which must come upon any rise, but it seems to attract little attention, and while the army of buyers is not large the growing case is mousy is expected to devotop it soon, and the indications are that the short interest, which evidently has not been seriously diminished by the late decline, must inevitably furnish the estimates to any rise which may come.
